

Summary

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is fundamentally transforming the landscape of modern education. From personalized learning experiences to automated administrative tasks, AI is redefining how students learn and how educators teach. AI-powered tools like automated grading systems reduce the workload on teachers.